

RECAP WEBQUEST GEOGRAPHY

India is situated in South Asia. This country shares a natural border which is called the Himalayas with Nepal, Bhutan and Afghanistan. India is also surrounded by other countries which are named Bangladesh and Pakistan. India's official name is the Republic of India or Bhārat Ganarājya because English and Hindi are the two most spoken languages. The country is the largest democracy and it is run by the President Shri Ram Nath Kovind and by the Prime Minister who is called Narendra Damodardas Modi. India is composed of twenty-eight states and of nine union territories. New Delhi and its metropolitan area is the world's second largest populated city with twenty-seven million people. India is the second most populous country with 1,379,056,148 inhabitants. India's flag has three stripes of three different colours which are orange, white and green. Orange or saffron or Bhagwa symbolizes courage, sacrifice and renunciation or disinterest. White in the centre is the symbol of truth and purity in thoughts. And finally, green is a reminder of plants and nature which everybody needs to live and of prosperity. In the middle of the white stripe, we can see a blue symbol which is called the Ashoka Chakra which represents the spinning wheel which symbolizes progress and movement.

RECAP WEBQUEST GEOGRAPHY

India is situated in This country shares a natural border which is called with, and India is also surrounded by other countries which are named and India's official name is the or because and are the two most spoken languages. The country is the and it is run by the President and by the Prime Minister who is called India is composed of and of and its metropolitan area is city with people. India is country with inhabitants. India's flag has three stripes of which are, and or or symbolizes, and or disinterest. in the centre is the symbol of and in thoughts. And finally, is a reminder of and nature which everybody needs to live and of In the middle of the white stripe, we can see a blue symbol which is called the which represents the which symbolizes and